

Joan Zeglarski is a Partner and Co-Founder of HRT Associates, a private consultancy dedicated to helping corporate and government organizations build productive and rewarding work environments.

Joan is a dynamic facilitator who focuses on engaging participants with highly interactive exercises and activities to maximize the effectiveness of the time they spend in her sessions. Joan holds the degree of Master of Human Resources and Organization Development from USF, and has an extensive experiential background in management, human resources, organization development, training development, and training delivery. Her years of experience in these areas make her an impressive resource.

For the past 25 years, Joan has provided exceptional service to a wide range of organizations. Contact Info: (916) 731-5702.